June 29, 2020	Order - Rule to Show Cause		Per Curiam
Comment: Upon consideration of Appellant's "Emergency Request For A Ten (10) Day Extension Of Time To File Appellant's Opening Brief And Reproduced Record Due To The Suspicious Death Of My Mother, Gladys DeAngelo," Appellant is hereby GRANTED an extension of thirty (30) days to file a brief and reproduced record. Appellant's brief shall be filed on or before July 15, 2020. Further, in light of Appellant informing this Court of the death of Gladys DeAngelo, it appears this appeal may be moot. See In re Appointment of a Guardian of Gerber, 824 A.2d 1204 (Pa. Super. 2003) (dismissing as moot appeal from order appointing guardian of incapacitated person, where incapacitated person died during pendency of appeal). Accordingly, Appellant is directed to show cause within ten (10) days of the date of this order as to why this appeal should not be dismissed as moot. Failure to respond to this Court's directive within the time specified may result in the dismissal of this appeal without further notice.
July 14, 2020	Response to Rule to Show Cause	Appellant	DeAngelo, James C.
Comment: This appeal has been taken from the order entered on November 4, 2019, which appointed James Kurt Zimmerman and The Arc Alliance Guardian Services as co-guardians of Gladys DeAngelo. Ms. DeAngelo died on May 28, 2020, during the pendency of this appeal. "In this Commonwealth, an actual claim or controversy must be present at all stages of the judicial process for the case to be actionable or reviewable. If events occur to eliminate the claim or controversy at any stage in the process, the case becomes moot. In those instances, however, where the case involves an important public interest that is capable of repetition but is likely to continually evade appellate review, we may reach the merits of an appeal despite its technical mootness." In re Appointment of a Guardian of Gerber, 824 A.2d 1204, 1206 (Pa. Super. 2003) (dismissing as moot appeal from order appointing guardian of incapacitated person, where incapacitated person died during pendency of appeal). Here, the death of Gladys DeAngelo rendered this appeal moot, and Appellant has failed to establish any exception to the mootness doctrine. Accordingly, the appeal at No. 3466 EDA 2019 is hereby DISMISSED.
