DOCKET ENTRY

Filed Date	Docket Entry / Filer	Representing	Participant Type	Exit Date
October 15, 2024	Order Denying Application for Emergency Relief Wolf, Matthew S.			10/15/2024
	Document Name: Petitioner's Application for Emergency Expedited Special and Summary Relief is Denied Comment: NOW, this 15th day of October, 2024, upon consideration of Patrick M. Browne's, Secretary, Pennsylvania Department of Revenue (Secretary Browne) "Application for Emergency Expedited Special and Summary Relief" (Emergency Application), 1 and Respondents' answer thereto, Secretary Browne's Emergency Application is DENIED.2
	1 Through the Emergency Application, Secretary Browne seeks relief in the form of a writ prohibiting the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate from taking custody or otherwise compelling his physical movement and a judgment declaring that the Senate of Pennsylvania is without authority to compel him to disclose certain information requested in a July 10, 2024 Subpoena issued by the Senate Intergovernmental Operations Committee. See Emergency Application at 7. 2 Emergency relief is not warranted as the case is not ripe for determination. See Camiel v. Select Committee on State Contract Practices of the House of Representatives, 324 A.2d 862, 870 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1974). In Camiel, a select committee of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives issued a subpoena duces tecum to Peter J. Camiel, who challenged the subpoena on the grounds that it was so broad and indefinite that it violated his constitutional rights. We explained that while Camiel had "raised real issues which may some day have to be decided by the courts. . . this case does not yet present a justiciable issue and therefore is not ripe for a decision on the merits." Id. at 865. The case was not ripe because "there ha[d] been no confrontation." Id. at 866; see also Costa v. Ward, 290 A.3d 335, 349 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2023), vacated on other grounds, 310 A.3d 229 (Pa. 2024) ("[This] Court will not decide issues raised by a legislative subpoena that are capable of being resolved by negotiation and compromise or change of heart."). As in Camiel, there has been no confrontation, and the instant matter is therefore not yet justiciable. Accordingly, we withhold from "ruling on the merits of the case in any manner." Camiel, 324 A.2d at 870. Secretary Browne may "commence an action after definitive issues are struck, if he so desires." Id.
